The Paul Baran Residential Installation of the Year Award

This award is named after Paul Baran. Paul was dedicated to the security industry and had been an instructor for many years. His dedication to training and education in the alarm industry will live on forever. This award honors Technicians/Dealers who exemplify professionalism in their installation expertise. Submit 5 photos of your best installation for entry of this award, and a brief overview of the system design. Submissions will be narrowed down to three finalists. During the Expo, attendees will vote for the best of the three entries. Each entry will not include the technician name or company name during the voting process. Winners will be announced at the General Sessions Lunch on Friday Feb 3rd. The winner will be presented $250.00 and a personalized recognition plaque before the conclusion of the Lunch Session. Please do not include the subscriber name or address to protect the consumer's privacy.
